

Go with the FLOW, the Art of POURING PAINT

with CHRIS SULLIVAN

MAY 18 & 19 - 9AM-4PM

Workshop Fee: $195 - $80 deposit Limited enrollment to 12

Working with the natural flowing property of water, this exciting and creative workshop explores the creative possibilities of pouring paint for interpreting various subjects in watercolor. You will learn how to control this method of painting and how to further develop your paintings into unique and innovative works of art. Intermediate or advanced level watercolor skills recommended.

Chris Sullivan, a Signature Member of Watercolor West, is a highly motivating teacher, respected juror, and inspiring artist. She graduated from UC Davis in Fine Art and studied with Wayne Thiebaud, William T. Wiley, Roy DeForest, and Bob Arneson. Chris was a teaching assistant for the Rex Brandt Painting School from 1981-1986. She also taught watercolor for Saddleback College, and watercolor painting and 2-D and 3-D mixed media techniques at Coastline Community College where she was an art professor from 1981 to 2014. Chris has shown her work in numerous galleries, museums, juried exhibitions, and the Laguna Beach Festival of Art. Chris works out of her studio in Corona del Mar.
